Quadrant Carpets

Quadrant has expanded its commercial flooring portfolio with the launch of Salto, a highly resilient, loose lay vinyl plank and tile collection perfect for installation on raised access floors. The Salto collection offers high quality flooring to complement the latest commercial building concepts. This elegant flooring solution provides a hardwearing and fade-resistant finish for heavy traffic areas. Salto offers a slip resistant surface very useful in entrance and canteen spaces and is highly effective for raised floor areas, providing easy-access to services.

The Workshop

PRODUCT OF THE MONTH

London-based The Workshop presents Well Hung, a collection of furniture designs that physically engage with the space, using wood and metal to create sexy, sculptural pieces. Founded by architect Sebastian Mann of design agency Minale + Mann, The Workshop has been creating custom-made furniture for over 12 years. The products acknowledge Mann's background in architecture and his obsession for specialist fabrication techniques. An emphasis on shape, texture and finishes makes up the refined industrial style. Pictured here is the Bureau 2.0.

Zita Menyhart Studio

Zita Menyhart Studio is a London-based design practice that produces a mix of contemporary home accessories, furniture and lighting with the aim of creating playful, clean and timeless products, together forming a cohesive collection. 1000 Units is a series of stools and side tables inspired by traditional weights. With versatility in mind, the side table can double up as a stool. Finishes include black, white and stone. The entire range is suitable for the inside as well as out and is a striking addition to any space.

Interface

Interface has unveiled three global collections influenced by nature's ability to inspire and energise. Equal Measure, Narratives and Near & Far use subtle, natural analogues to create restorative spaces, helping promote well-being, productivity and facilitate work. The new products are highly versatile and can be installed alone or with existing flooring. Equal Measure is comprised of three Skinny Planks styles. Near & Far is a collection of Skinny Planks inspired by weathered wood and rocks. Narratives tells a tale of contrast and minimalism. They offer a solid yet soft foundation.
