

BEYOND SITTING PRETTY

Furniture has to live up to an array of demands in any setting. It should be functional, providing comfort and durability. But in a retail environment, it's tasked with supporting a brand's image to a steady stream of clientele.

Manufacturers are delivering a variety of sturdy show-stopping pieces, perfect for myriad spaces. Many are being offered in eco-friendly and sustainable materials, and others are customizable, configurable elements – ideal for a breadth of applications.

From leather to lacquer, modular to marble, sofas to sideboards, the latest offerings are built with all of these needs in mind, creating a truly stylish, standout space. —Carmen Sechrist

Arper
arper.com

The Steeve modular system includes a bench, armchair and sofa that can be arranged in countless configurations. Available in a variety of fabrics, leathers and finishes.

Angela Adams
angelaadams.com

This Timber Sidecase measures 84 in. wide, 24 in. tall, with a depth of 18 in. All furniture from this company is available in custom dimensions in White Oak, Cherry or Walnut.

Magnuson Group
magnusongroup.com

The Stilla chair and table collection is tough enough to withstand both interior and exterior use, while providing a European-inspired minimalist design. Casual and durable, this collection can be used in a range of applications.

Bassett Mirror Co.
bassettmirror.com

Stay a while: Based on versions of this company's Parsons chair collection, these Counter Stools come in a variety of styles, including Nelson, Blaine and Corbett.

Zita Menyhart Studio
zitamenyhart.com

Inspired by the design of traditional weights, the 1000 Units series of stools and side tables are versatile enough for indoors and outdoors, while tables can be stacked to create oversized stools.

